St. Helena

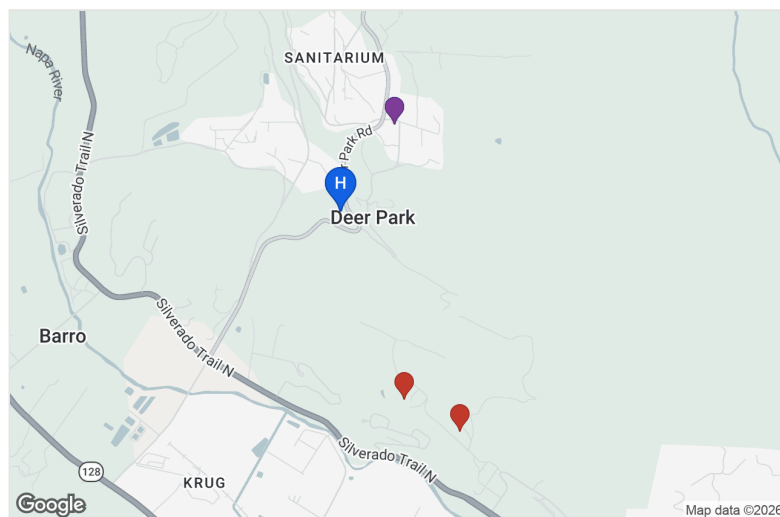

THE HOME

510 Deer Park Road sits in the wooded hills above St. Helena, where the Napa Valley floor gives way to forested slopes and the cadence of daily life slows. The address places the property within reach of Meadowood, the resort whose Michelin-starred dining and member clubhouse anchor this quiet enclave. Deer Park Road itself is a winding, hillside route—car-dependent by design, with a Walk Score of 7—favoring privacy over foot traffic. The setting is defined by oak canopy, seasonal grasses, and the kind of seclusion that appeals to those who seek distance from the valley's commercial corridor.

When she was 17 years old her family lost their childhood home in a devastating fire that went through her hometown, and it really changed the way she sees what home means. It makes this work feel very personal to her because she knows firsthand how much of an impact a home has on you and your family.

Krystal is fluent in Spanish and holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice along with a paralegal certificate from California State University, Chico. She genuinely loves helping people through one of the biggest moments of their lives and deeply cares about making the process feel clear, supportive, and a lot less overwhelming.
